Your Personalized Uttarakhand Itinerary

Day Trip to Worship Places in Uttarakhand

Destination: Haridwar and Rishikesh

Duration: 1 day

Best Time to Visit: September to November or March to May

Itinerary:

6:00 AM - Start from Haridwar

Begin your day with a delicious breakfast at a local café in Haridwar. Start your day with a visit to the famous Har Ki Pauri (steps to the Lord), a sacred Ghat on the banks of the Ganges River. Witness the spectacular Aarti ceremony, a prayer ritual that takes place twice a day, once in the morning and once in the evening.

7:00 AM - Visit Mansa Devi Temple

After visiting Har Ki Pauri, proceed to the Mansa Devi Temple, dedicated to the goddess Mansa Devi. Take a ropeway ride to reach the temple and enjoy the breathtaking views of the Haridwar city.

9:00 AM - Visit Daksha Temple

Visit the Daksha Temple, one of the oldest temples in Haridwar, dedicated to Lord Shiva. The temple is famous for its intricate carvings and beautiful architecture.

11:00 AM - Visit Rishikesh

After visiting Daksha Temple, proceed to Rishikesh, a city known for its spiritual significance and natural beauty. Visit the Triveni Ghat, a confluence of the Ganges River, Yamuna River, and Saraswati River.

12:30 PM - Lunch at Rishikesh

Take a break and have lunch at a local restaurant in Rishikesh. Try some of the local cuisine, such as thali or other vegetarian dishes.

2:00 PM - Visit Lakshman Jhula

Visit the famous Lakshman Jhula, a suspension bridge that connects the two banks of the Ganges River. The bridge is said to have been built by Lakshman, the brother of Lord Rama.

4:00 PM - Visit Parmarth Niketan Ashram

Visit the Parmarth Niketan Ashram, a spiritual retreat that offers stunning views of the Ganges River. Take a stroll along the ashram's premises and enjoy the peaceful atmosphere.

6:00 PM - Return to Haridwar

After visiting Parmarth Niketan Ashram, return to Haridwar and enjoy the evening Aarti ceremony at the Har Ki Pauri.

8:00 PM - End the Day

End your day with a visit to a local café in Haridwar and enjoy some hot tea or coffee. Reflect on the spiritual experiences you had throughout the day and cherish the memories of your day trip to Haridwar and Rishikesh.

Tips and Reminders:

- Wear comfortable clothing and shoes for the day's activities.
- Bring sunscreen, sunglasses, and a hat to protect yourself from the sun.
- Bring a water bottle to stay hydrated throughout the day.
- Try to avoid visiting during peak season (June to August) as it can get crowded and hot.
- Respect the local customs and traditions while visiting the temples and ashrams.
- Be prepared for early morning wake-up calls and long walks.

Getting There:

- Haridwar is well-connected by road and rail to major cities in India.
- You can take a taxi or bus from Haridwar to Rishikesh (approximately 1 hour journey).

Accommodation:

- You can stay in Haridwar or Rishikesh for the night and explore the city the next day.
- There are many budget-friendly options available, including guesthouses and hostels.

Budget:

- Transportation: ₹500 - ₹1000 (depending on the mode of transport and distance)

- Food: ₹500 - ₹1000 (depending on the type of cuisine and restaurant)
- Entry fees: ₹10 - ₹50 (depending on the temple or ashram)
- Total: ₹2,000 - ₹4,000 (depending on the mode of transport, food, and other expenses)

This itinerary provides a mix of spiritual experiences, natural beauty, and cultural richness, making it an unforgettable day trip to Haridwar and Rishikesh.
